Sunday 22nd May 2022

Welcome to worship this morning. Our guest preacher today is Ian Olver AM. Ian does most of his lay preaching at Burnside City UC and on the Fleurieu Peninsula. He is a medical oncologist, cancer researcher and bio-ethicist. He is also former CEO of the Cancer Council Australia and supports cancer care in India through his association with the Christian Medical College Hospital in Vellore. Please make him welcome as he joins us at Athelstone to share the message of God with us today.

A note from Paul

Thank you all for your very kind and generous welcome as I start with you at Athelstone. And thank you for the opportunity to join in ministry with you, it is such a privilege.

It really is a privilege that we all have, to explore what it means to be fully human, fully alive on God's good earth. God always invites us to engage in this great, ongoing conversation with each other, with people of faith and goodwill around the world, with our history and traditions, and with our precious scriptures. There is so much to be experienced!

In the gospels, Jesus is constantly inviting people into life and, as well, inviting people to see what they already thought they knew in new ways. He reminded people that to live fully they needed not just to look but to truly see, not just to listen but to truly hear. That's part of the great adventure, isn't it? Or, as Marcel Proust put it in 'Remembrance of Things Past' (also known as 'In Search of Lost Time') "The real voyage of discovery consists, not in seeking new landscapes, but in having new eyes."

Thanks for letting me to be a part of your explorations and for the 'new eyes' with which I know you will help me see.

Paul Turley

Packing Day

Once again the Athelstone Uniting Church is coordinating the packing of goods for indigenous communities in northern and central Australia. Please save the dates: Sunday June 5th and Monday June 6th. This event is a chance for our church community to engage in some fellowship and I would love to have you join us in the camaraderie of the Packing Day. As in previous years we are collecting for the communities north of Darwin so require clothing and Manchester that would be suitable for these tropical destinations. Along with used goods, there are some new items that could be purchased – underwear, stationery, toiletries. Goods can be dropped off at Church on Sunday mornings. See Jayne and she will arrange for them to be stored in the shed. If you have any questions, please ask Jayne Nicholas 0418836266. You will find the packing list flier on the church website.

Prayer Requests

Can we support you in prayer? Here's how:

Election Resource

Ahead of the 2022 Federal Election, the Uniting Church Assembly has released a resource which expresses our hope for Australia to become a nation where all people and the whole creation can flourish.

Drawing on the UCA document Our Vision for a Just Australia, the election resource will be a useful resource to help start discussion and for UCA members to consider as we engage with candidates about their policies.
